I run paid media that has to pay for itself, and I write the words that make it work. Over the last two years I have paced up to ₹60 lakh a month in Meta and Google spend for 14 leading Indian real-estate brands at once, and written the blogs and ad copy that sit on top of that spend. An MBA in Marketing gave me the business case; the ads dashboard taught me the discipline of checking whether it was true.

EXPERIENCE

Performance Marketing Specialist (Meta Ads) — Assettrust Services

Bangalore · Sep 2026 – Present

A-grade real-estate channel partner since 2014, with teams across Bengaluru, Chennai, Hyderabad, Mumbai, Pune, Noida, Gurgaon and Dubai.

- Manage up to ₹60 lakh a month (₹2 lakh a day) in Meta and Google spend for developer projects across all eight office cities, including Prestige City (Chennai), Godrej Parkshire (Bangalore), Godrej Arden (Noida) and Kolte Patil (Pune).
- Design the graphic ads myself, from static creatives to carousels, and write the copy that goes with them, so each project launches with one consistent message.
- Adjust targeting and creative city by city, so a Bangalore launch and a Noida launch each reach the right buyers.

Performance Marketer — Wolf Media Marketing

Remote, Guwahati · Nov 2025 – Jul 2026

- Handled paid media for 14 top Indian real-estate clients simultaneously, pacing monthly budgets of up to ₹30 lakh across Meta Ads Manager and Google Ads.
- Drove enquiry growth across tier-1 cities by building audience, placement and creative tests, then reading ROAS, CPA and CTR weekly and moving spend to what worked.
- Wrote and briefed the ad copy, hooks and landing-page messaging with designers — then rewrote whatever the data said to rewrite.
- Reported to clients in plain language every week — spend, return, and the one change I wanted to make next.
